

Look up your Flood Zone, which is a tool for obtaining flood insurance, is temporarily discontinued as flood insurance sales are suspended locally and as computer resources are being directed to emergency response.

Please go to <https://www.leegov.com/publicsafety/emergencymanagement> for information about planning for a possible impact from Hurricane Irma.

To find your evacuation zone go to <https://leegis.leegov.com/evacuationzones> or download the free LeeAlert app from iTunes or Google Play stores.
